LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(f.) To investigate and negotiate for the adjustment and settlement of any dispute which may arise between persons or classes of persons engaged in or about any work or labour associated with the businesses of shipping, docking, lightering, stevedoring, or cargo-handling in the said seaports or between any member or members of the Society:

(g.) To maintain a bureau or bureaus in which a register or registers will be kept of all persons employed in or about any work whatsoever carried on in connection with the businesses of shipping, docking, lightering, stevedoring, or cargo-handling in the ports of the Pacific Coast of Canada:

(h.) To provide a hall or halls, meeting-places, rest-rooms, refreshment-rooms, baths, and other facilities for members of the Society, and members of other societies, unions, organizations, or companies associated with this Society or with which this Society may carry on business, and to permit same to be used for such lawful purposes and upon such terms as the directors of the Society may think fit, and to carry on directly or indirectly by itself, or by or through persons authorized by it, operations as restaurant-keepers, caterers, storekeepers, and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in, by wholesale or retail, all goods, stores, and merchandise necessary and incidental to the carrying-on of the above operations:

(i.) To promote safety in the operations of water-front workers and of all employees of the Society or of the members of the Society, and to make and enforce regulations concerning the same, and to employ safety engineers and other experts to advise thereon, and to adopt, put into effect, operate, and enforce modern methods, devices, rules, and regulations conducive to the attainment of safety in all operations directly or indirectly associated with the operations of the members of the Society or their employees, or those engaged in carrying on business with the members:

(j.) To construct, erect, purchase, build, charter, hire, or otherwise acquire, operate, sell, and dispose of motor-vehicles, ships, tug-boats, lighters, scows, barges, aeroplanes, flying-boats, and the like, or shares or interests therein or shares of companies owning, operating, or dealing in the same, together with all machinery, plant, and equipment necessary or incidental thereto, and to maintain and operate the same or any part thereof, and to transport passengers and goods, and to build, lease, hire, or otherwise acquire ways, shops, plant, and equipment necessary or considered advisable for or in connection with the building, maintaining, repairing, and operating of the same or any part thereof:

(k.) To purchase, take or lease, or otherwise acquire and to operate wharves, warehouse, hangars, garages, stores, halls, meeting-places, buildings, plant, machinery, equipment, and appliances, and to sell, lease, sublease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(l.) To hold, maintain, improve, develop, and operate, or to lease, charter, hire, sell, or otherwise deal with and turn to account, any real or personal property of the Society or which in the opinion of the directors may be advantageously maintained, improved, developed, or operated by the Society:

(m.) To sell, exchange, or dispose of any of the Society's holdings or assets, real or personal, either for a cash consideration or for consideration of shares or debentures or securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, or partly in the one and partly in the other:

(n.) To insure against losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect the Society:

(o.) To provide to its members and to such other persons, firms, organizations, or corporations as may from time to time be determined by the directors any or all of the services which the Society is authorized to provide or carry on, and to charge for the same such fees, assessments, levies, or other consideration as the directors may from time to time determine, and, subject to the provisions of the "Societies Act," to enforce payment therefor:

(p.) To compile and publish statistics, newspapers, magazines, journals, pamphlets, and such other publications of whatsoever nature as the Society or its directors may from time to time determine:

(q.) To make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of the Society or not:

(r.) To carry out all or any of the objects or purposes of the Society, and to do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, directors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Society:

(t.) Subject to the provisions contained in clause 10 of the "Societies Act," to borrow, raise, and secure the payment of money in such manner as it sees fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or other securities charged upon the whole or any part of the assets of the Society.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise and generally to deal and traffic in lands, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, timber and timber rights, mines and mining rights, and any estate or interest therein and any rights over or connected with the said lands, buildings, and hereditaments, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient; and in particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, by preparing building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, and furnishing offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, gasoline service-stations, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(b.) To manage lands, buildings, and other properties as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to the tenants and occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messenger, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, and other conveniences and advantages:

(c.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets or liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same, or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, and generally to deal in and traffic in by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise, any other property, whether real or personal:

(e.) To establish and carry on and to promote the establishment and carrying-on upon the property in which the Company is interested of any business which may be conveniently carried on upon or in connection with such property, and the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(f.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any buildings in which the Company is interested, and generally to advance money to such person on such terms as may be arranged:

(g.) To carry on a general brokerage business, and to issue on commission, underwrite, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any person, Government authority, or company, and generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, promoters, financiers, insurance-brokers, investigators, concessionaires, agents, and contractors (other than banking or insurance business or trust business as defined by the "Trust Companies Act"):

(h.) To act as agents or attorneys for the management of estates, the investment, handling of loans, payment, transmission, and collection of moneys, rents, and interest, and to carry on a general financial agency, promotion, and brokerage business:

(i.) To purchase, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate and personal property:

(j.) To carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders, contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick and tile and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents:

(k.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company; and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Consolidated Red Cedar Shingle Association of British Columbia" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this ninth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To bring together all persons interested or engaged in the manufacture, distribution, or sale of red-cedar shingles and allied products, and to promote the welfare of those so interested or engaged within the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To gather and disseminate information upon the supply, market conditions, production, and distribution of red-cedar shingles, shingle-stains, stained shingles, staining materials, and logs and shingle-bolts:

(c.) To establish a Shingle Inspection Bureau and issue grading rules for any and all species of red-cedar shingles manufactured by the members, and to supervise the grading practice at mills of its members:

(d.) To provide general traffic service for its members:

(e.) To promote the marketing and sale of red-cedar shingles in Canada and elsewhere, and to enlarge the market and demand for shingles in such manner as the Society or its directors may deem expedient, and particularly by advertising in newspapers and periodicals of all descriptions, and by the distribution of advertising matter and the display of advertising of any kind, and research:

(f.) To promote uniformity of accounting methods amongst its members:

(g.) To make such arrangements as the Society shall deem expedient with similar societies, associations, or corporations, within and without the Province of British Columbia, for the interchange of information relative to the shingle and allied industries:

(h.) To originate and promote improvements in the law and to support and oppose alterations therein, and to effect improvements in administration, and for the purposes aforesaid petition any legislative body, any city or municipal authorities, and to take such other steps and proceedings as may be deemed expedient, and generally to watch over and protect the interests of the members of the Society:

(i.) To take up, on behalf of any member, legal or other proceedings involving any matter of common interest to the Society as a whole:

(j.) To provide facilities for checking the weights of red-cedar shingles shipped by rail:

(k.) To advance the working conditions of the employees of the Society members, more particularly by educating them in "safety-first" precautions:

(m.) To provide the ways and means of raising the necessary money to pay and defray expenses incurred in carrying out the objects of the Society, and to make, in accordance with the by-laws, assessments on the members of the Society in such amounts and at such times as the directors may determine; such assessments, when made, to constitute a debt due to the Society by the respective members:

(n.) To apply for and obtain trade-marks and other registration or recognition under the "Unfair Competition Act, 1932":

(o.) To enter into contracts or agreements with any person, partnership, society, or company, whether a member of this Society or not, relating to the conduct and improvement of the business of manufacturing and dealing in red-cedar shingles and allied products, respecting any market:

(p.) To facilitate the manufacturing, selling, and distributing of red-cedar shingles by having its members abide by fair trade practices as established by the Society:

(q.) To co-operate with any other person, society, association, or corporation, whether within or without British Columbia, for the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Society:

(r.) To do all such other things as the Society may think conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects. 9262-oc15

(b.) To cut, buy, sell, or otherwise deal in wood, timber, and lumber and forest products of all sorts; to build tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, docks, piers, and other works for collecting, holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all other purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission and sale of timber, sawlogs, pulp-wood, and lumber:

(c.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, importers, exporters, and dealers in sash, doors, screens, glass, mouldings, casings, panel-work, counters, shelves, show-cases, dressed lumber, and all other finished products of lumber and timber, and to contract for, erect, place in position as required, or otherwise deal with the same:

(d.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in, either by wholesale or retail, or both, all kinds of provisions, commodities, products, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, and goods and merchandise of all kinds, and to establish and carry on shops and stores for the purpose of buying, selling, and dealing in such goods, and generally to carry on the business of a trading company, either wholesale or retail:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire water rights or privileges and any timber lands and timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and to work, develop, maintain, and turn the same to account as the Company may see fit:

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in plant machinery, implements, conveniences, creosote and other chemicals and things capable of being used in connection with any of the businesses of the Company, or required by workmen or others employed by the Company:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and to subdivide, sell, lease, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise charge, deal with, or encumber the said lands or any interest therein:

(h.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire and use scows, tug-boats, steel and other ships or vessels, or any shares or interest in the same, and generally to carry on the business of carriers, shipping agents, warehousemen, and forwarding agents:

(i.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and in particular to lend money to customers or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to take security therefor on either real or personal property:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(p.) To divide any of the assets of the Company, in kind, among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(r.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(g.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction in which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) Subject to section 144, to take or otherwise acquire and hold the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To establish agencies and branches and to adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(l.) Subject to section 145, to lend money to any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to guarantee the contracts of any such person or company:

(m.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of debentures or other securities or otherwise, any company, wheresoever incorporated, and which the Company may have business relations, and to guarantee the contracts of any such company:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(o.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(p.) Subject to section 123, to remunerate any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of or the sale or disposition of its business:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To carry on any business capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(u.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company, in kind, specie, or otherwise, as may be resolved, by way of dividend, bonus, or in any other manner deemed advisable, any property or assets of the Company or any proceeds of the sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of or in any other company belonging to this Company or which it may have power to dispose of:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the formation and organization thereof or which the Company may consider to be preliminary:

(w.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any part of the British Empire and in any foreign country or place, and to designate persons therein, according to the laws of such foreign country or place, to represent the Company and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(y.) To carry out all or any of the objects of the Company, and do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Company:

(aa.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(bb.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(cc.) To engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(dd.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise timber lands, leases, or claims, rights to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights and concessions, and other real or personal property:

(ee.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipelines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(ff.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(gg.) To sell or otherwise dispose of ore, metal, oil, gas, or mineral product, and to take contracts for mining-work of all kinds, and to accept as consideration shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated and authorized to carry on any business conducive, directly or indirectly, to the attainment of the objects of the Company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up, and to sell or otherwise dispose thereof:

(hh.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated and authorized to carry on any business or undertaking which the Company is authorized to carry on:

(ii.) To manufacture, buy, sell, import and export, deal and trade in, either as principal, factor, agent, brokers, or in any other capacity, and upon commission or otherwise, all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, and all kinds of materials, whether manufactured or unmanufactured or in process of manufacture, and to carry on a general merchandise business both at wholesale and retail.

To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(dd.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(ee.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of the United Kingdom or of any State or dependency of the United Kingdom or any foreign or other country:

(ff.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(gg.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object, and to make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever:

(hh.) To obtain any provisional order, Ordinance, or Act of Parliament, or any Act or Ordinance of or grant or licence from any foreign or other Government, State, Legislature, or municipality for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(ii.) To appoint from time to time, either with full or restricted powers of subdelegation and either with or without remuneration, agents, attorneys, local or managing directors, or other persons or corporations under power of attorney or otherwise within or outside of British Columbia for the purpose of carrying out and completing all or any of the objects of the Company as mentioned in this memorandum of association, and of arranging, conducting, or managing the business or businesses of the Company or any matter or concern whatsoever in which the Company is now or may from time to time be or become or be about to become interested or concerned, with the same or more limited powers than the directors of the Company have, and to delegate such powers of appointment to any person or persons, company or corporation, and from time to time to revoke and cancel all or any such appointments or delegations, and to remove any person or corporation appointed thereunder:

(jj.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(kk.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands and property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company or on such trusts for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(ll.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate, by commission, brokerage, granting of options of taking up shares of the Company, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company or the conduct of its business, or placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(mm.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(nn.) To enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modification, an agreement, a draft of which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between John S. W. Pugh and Sherwood Lett of the one part and the Company of the other part, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signature of Donald Gordon Marshall, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(oo.) To enter into and carry into effect, either with or without modification, an agreement, a draft of which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between James Drummond Dole, Lawrence Arthur Glover, and David Robert Blair of the one part and the Company of the other part, a copy of which has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signature of Donald Gordon Marshall, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(pp.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

"(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, deal in and with, and otherwise dispose of personal property of all kinds:

"(c.) To take part in the management, operation, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company, society, or undertaking:

"(d.) To carry on business of financiers and to undertake to carry out financial operations and transactions:

"(e.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

"(f.) To carry on such operations as may be deemed necessary or advisable in connection with the Company's properties or assets, and particularly for the purpose of preserving same:

"(g.) The directors from time to time may set aside out of any of the funds of the Company, whether capital or income, such sums as they think proper as a reserve fund, to be used to meet contingencies or for such other purposes as the directors may think advisable in the interests of the Company, and may employ the money and assets from time to time constituting such reserve fund in the business of the Company without being obliged to keep the same separate from the other assets of the Company:

"(h.) In addition and without prejudice to subclause (g) above, the directors may at any time set aside out of any funds or assets of the Company such sum or sums as they may deem necessary or desirable in the interests of the Company as an 'Internal Reserve' or as an addition to such Internal Reserve when formed, which shall be used for such purposes as the directors may in their absolute discretion determine; provided that such reserve fund must be used for serving, protecting, enhancing, or advancing the interests of the Company, or for preserving or promoting the value of its assets or good-will; and provided further that the amount of such Internal Reserve and all additions thereto and the purposes for which the same or any part of it has been used or employed shall be disclosed annually to all directors and to the auditors of the Company. The auditors shall not disclose to the shareholders any information so obtained by them unless in their opinion such reserve or a part thereof is being or has been used for purposes prejudicial to the interests of the Company or any of its shareholders, in which event it shall be the duty of the auditors to make a report to the shareholders outlining the position of the Internal Reserve at the time of reporting and furnishing full facts and particulars of the items which they consider detrimental to the interests of the Company or the shareholders thereof."

MUNICIPAL BY-LAWS.

THE CORPORATION OF THE DISTRICT OF SAANICH.

BY-LAW No. 530.

A By-law to provide for certain lateral Ditches, and for borrowing on the credit of the Municipality Eight Hundred Dollars for Completing the Same.

Provisionally adopted the 13th day of August, 1936.

WHEREAS a portion of the municipality in the vicinity of Telegraph Bay Road has certain existing ditches:

And whereas the Corporation of the District of Saanich, with the aid of a grant from the Department of Indian Affairs, has constructed a main ditch and installed a flood-gate:

And whereas, in order to complete the undertaking, it is necessary to install and construct and improve certain lateral ditches:

And whereas the Council of the Corporation of the District of Saanich procured an examination to be made by Hugo Howard Allen, a duly qualified engineer, being a person competent for such purpose, of the ditches proposed, and has also procured plans and estimate of the works to be made by the said Hugo Howard Allen, and an assessment to be made by him of the lands and roads to be benefited by such deepening and cleaning-out, stating as nearly as he can the proportion of benefit which in his opinion will be derived in consequence of such work by every lot or portion of lot, the said assessment so made being the assessment hereinafter by this by-law enacted to be assessed and levied upon the lots and parts of lots hereinafter in that behalf specially set forth and described, and the report of the said Hugo Howard Allen in respect thereof being as follows:—

“ July 9th, 1936.

“ The Reeve and Councillors,
Corporation of the District of Saanich.

“ GENTLEMEN,—Referring to the matter of drainage in the district in vicinity of Telegraph Bay Road, and in reference to the sum of money required for lateral ditches, I estimate the cost of lateral ditches at $800.

“ The area to be benefited is 135.15 acres and the cost is $5.92 per acre.

“ I have to report that I have carried out the necessary examination of the district in question and find that the properties benefited are as per plan herewith and dated July 9th, 1936. The properties referred to and the proportion of benefit by construction of lateral ditches are as per book of reference as shown upon the plan, which book of reference read as follows:—
